

LAMB of GOD

Written and Orchestrated by Rob Gardner
Performed by the Tucson Interfaith Choir and Orchestra

What is
LAMB of GOD?

Lamb of God offers a unique take on the Passion story. It blends classical, cinematic, and choral musical elements to depict the final days of Jesus Christ, His crucifixion, and His resurrection. The Gospels of the New Testament are the sole source material in Lamb of God. Because of this, the work is performed every year, all around the world, by thousands of musicians and singers across dozens of faiths. About the
TUCSON INTERFAITH CHOIR and ORCHESTRA

At the heart of our work is a simple but powerful conviction: worship has the power to unite. We believe that through music, we can draw closer to Jesus Christ and to one another, finding common ground in a world that often feels divided. Through the Lamb of God project, we seek to bring musicians, friends, and neighbors together in a shared expression of faith. As we sing, play, and breathe together, we create a space where the love of God can be felt and shared, a space where hearts are bound to the Savior and to one another.

We are a community of believers who love music and love people. Our rehearsals and performances are not just about notes and rhythms; they are about building friendships, strengthening faith, and offering hope. In joining our voices, we pray to offer a message of peace, unity, and the redeeming love of Jesus Christ to our community at large. A note from the Directors

I want to thank you for joining us this Holy Week to worship our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, in preparation for Easter. I hope that, like mine, your testimony of Christ's matchless life and ministry, the sacred nature of His atoning sacrifice, and the glorious miracle of His resurrection will be strengthened and edified by what you hear and see today. I'm so grateful for the reverent and masterful preparation of these wonderful musicians. We're excited to feature our Youth Choir singing "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked," purposefully chosen to remind us that we, too, have the privilege of walking alongside our Savior, and becoming living witnesses of Him--what a strength it is to hear this testimony from our rising generation! I know our Savior lives and loves us; He wants to carry our burdens and make them light. I hope this experience will help performers and audience members alike to walk with Jesus and remember Him throughout the year and always. Enjoy!!

Nancy Prater

As we enter Holy Week, it is an honor and a privilege to participate in this concert centered on the life and mission of Jesus Christ. I am deeply grateful for the dedication, discipline, and artistry of these musicians, whose thoughtful preparation has shaped a program of both musical excellence and meaningful reflection. Music offers a unique opportunity to consider the Savior's atoning sacrifice and resurrection in a personal and lasting way. Each selection has been prepared with care, and it has been inspiring to witness the commitment of every performer to communicate both the beauty of the music and the message it represents. I am especially grateful for the participation of our Youth Choir, whose contribution adds both strength and sincerity to this evening's program. It is my hope that this concert provides a moment for reflection and leaves a lasting impression on all who hear it. Thank you for joining us for this special occasion.

Clay Whittington

A Special THANK YOU!

Many thanks are due to all who made these performances possible. Special appreciation goes to The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Tucson Unified School District, Millennial Music Publishing, and Santa Rita High School for their support. We are also grateful to showcase the piece, "Victory in Jesus," as the front cover artwork by Chris Brazelton - www.paintedgospel.com

Tucson Interfaith Choir and Orchestra expresses heartfelt gratitude to the many volunteers who dedicated their time and talents to rehearsals, logistics, program design, and administration for this special event.

We express further gratitude to the many parents who served as Youth Choir volunteers, ushers, parking attendants, and ticket takers who are helping these performances run smoothly. Thank you!
